Resolution: After discussion, SEC resolved the following:

1. Henceforth, Revenue & DM Department will release the fund earmarked for G.R. R.G., Ex-Gratia to the Deputy Commissioners and SDO (C)s by way of advance out of SDRF so that they need not send their sanctioned proposal to Revenue & DM Department for release of funds. The sanctioned amount will be adjusted out of advance at their disposal. All unspent SDRF amount will be returned by Deputy Commissioners / SDO (C)s to ASDMA by 28th February every year.
2. SEC agreed to the change proposed in the existing procedure for sanction and release of fund for all types of works under SDRF and recommended exemption from the requirement of F.O.C subject to approval by the Finance Department.
3. SEC resolved that all proposals under SDRF need to be placed before SEC for examination and approval.
4. Revenue & DM Department will issue Administrative Approval (A/A) directly to the concerned department with a copy to the respective DDMA.
5. Concerned Department will be able to take up the process for calling tenders etc. on the basis of minutes of SEC meeting. Actual work order will, however, be issued only after Administrative Approval is issued by ASDMA/ Revenue & D.M. Department.
6. Revenue & DM Department will decide district wise advance to be given out of SDRF for various items at the beginning of the Financial Year on the basis of past expenditure trends.
7. Departments may seek 15% mobilisation advance for works / schemes approved by SEC.

The meeting ended with thanks from the chair.
