tain possession of land
a f t e r aquisition

5.- Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) of Section 4, a religious or charitable institution (Including its individual branches, if any) shall, with effect from the date of vesting, be entitled to retain possession of-

(i) free of revenue, all such lands which on or before the last day of Chaitra, 1365 B.S. were in the ownership of the institution and were actually occupied by it by construction buildings and raising orchards and flower gardens together with the compounds appurtenant thereto and all lands reserved for the resident devotees for residential purposes.

Provided that the right of ownership or possession of such lands shall not be transable or alienable.

(ii) tea gardens land:

Provided such lands shall be liable for assessment to full revenue rate under any existing law.

Taking possession-

6. The Deputy Commissioner may, at any time after lands of an institution have vested in the State, proceed to take possession thereof, and may for that purpose take such steps as may be necessary:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to authorise the Deputy Commissioner to take possession of lands and buildings mentioned in Section 5.

Compensation

7. - Every religious or charitable institution whose lands have been acquired under the provisions of this Act shall be paid compensation which shall be determined on the principle hereinafter described.

Principles of determination of compensation and the manner of payment

8. - (1) The gross income of the land of religious or charitable institution which has been acquired under this Act shall be computed by taking the gross annual income from rent, forest, fisheries, hats, bazars, ferries, roads, grazing, reserves, mines and minerals for the agricultural year preceding the date of notification under section 3.

Explanation- For the purpose of calculation of gross annual income from rents of an institution, all arable lands, tenanted or fallow and homesteads belonging to such institution, shall be assessed at the prevailing rate of rent or revenue whichever is higher for similar land the neighbourhood and nearest to it and total amount for the previous year thus arrived at will be the gross income from rents.

(2) From the average gross income so computed shall be deducted the annual amount which was payable by the religious or charitable institution for the agricultural year preceding the date of notification under Section 3, as land revenue, cess, royalty, municipal tax, chaukidari tax, agricultural income-tax or any tax levied by the State and Central Government or rent to superior landlord in respect of the land acquired.

(3) A further amount shall be deducted from the gross income as the cost of management at the rates given below-

	Rate
(a) On the first Rs 5,000. of gross income.....	No deduction
(b) On the next Rs 5,000. gross income.....	At five per cent of the gross income
(c) On the balance of gross income.....	At ten per cent of the gross income.

(4) The balance remaining thereafter shall be treated as the net income.

(5) The net income thus arrived at shall be paid in cash annually as perpetual annuity as compensation to the Head of the institution for the lands acquired under this Act :

Provided that if any person is entitled to a share of the income of any institution or to a lumpsum allowance, under the terms of any grant or endowment relating to that institution, then he shall be paid an equivalent share out of the perpetual annuity or a lumpsum allowance to be determined in the manner prescribed.

Provided further that the lumpsum allowance so determined shall bear as nearly as possible the same ratio to the perpetual annuity as the allowance drawn prior to the acquisition bears to the net income as defined in this section.

[“(6) Without prejudice to any action under any other provision of this Act, the State Government may at any time call for the records and pass such orders as it may deem fit for correction of bonafide mistakes in the assessment of compensation either of for its own motion or on application of the person interested after giving the person or person interested an opportunity of being heard, but no such correction shall be made while an appeal under Section 21 of the Act is pending.

(7) (a) The State Government shall constitute a grant fund-in-aid to the Religious or Charitable Institution of Public nature both by way of recurring and non-recurring nature.

(b) In case of grant-in-aid of recurring nature, the amount of annuity shall be enhanced by 25% subject to minimum of Rs. 300 in respect of religious institution whose perpetual annuity originally determined at an amount not exceeding Rs. 1.00 lakh.

(c) No subsequent revision or increase of annuity shall be permissible until at least a period of not less than 10 years ,has elapsed since the preceding fixation or re-fixation of the annuity as the case may be.

(d) In case of non-recurring grant-in-aid a lumpsum amount of Rs. 500 shall be paid to the religious or charitable institution of public nature on application by the interested person/head of the institutions or by the State government suo moto, if any repair or renovation work including white washing is effected or any damages repaired on account of any natural decay or calamity, subject to verification of the actual cost of repair or renovation work done and subject to assessment and satisfaction of the authority about the nature and magnitude of the loss caused to the religious or charitable institution of public nature on account of natural decay or calamity. This amount shall be paid after every two years”]

Ad-interim
tion-

9. Pending investigation and final determination of compensation, an ad-interim payment in cash not exceeding 75 per cent of the probable amount of compensation may be made after a preliminary enquiry on the execution by the claimant of an indemnity bond and such ad-interim compensation shall be deemed to be part of the compensation payable under this Act and shall be deducted from and adjusted against it:

Option of removing,
Building etc.
on land vested in the State-

10. Where there is any building or structure or crop on the land, which have vested in the State the owner, thereof, shall be given the option of removing it within the prescribed period and if he fails to do so within the said period, it shall be sold in public auction and the sale proceeds, after deduction of the cost of auction, if any, shall be paid to him.

Claims for compensation

11. - Every religious or charitable institution whose rights in land have been acquired by the State Government shall prefer claim for compensation before the Deputy Commissioner within 30 days from the date of acquisition of such rights, and the Deputy Commissioner shall dispose of the claims according to the provisions of this Act.

[] Inserted vide Assam Act No XIX of 1987

Arrear of revenue, etc., to be deducted from compensation

12. - Where there is any arrear of revenue, local rates, cess or other dues lawfully payable to the State or Central Government by a religious or charitable institution whose lands have been acquired under this Act, the Deputy Commissioner may order that it shall be realised, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, by deduction from the compensation money in one or more instalments, and the Deputy Commissioner, or any other officer authorised in this behalf shall thereupon deduct the amount so ordered, unless it is found to the satisfaction of such officer that the amount has since been recovered in any other manner.

Provided that such recovery shall not reduce the amount of compensation by more than 25 per cent of the total amount of annual compensation payable.

Claims to creditors

13. - (1) Where any land acquired under this Act is subject to a mortgage, or charge, the creditors, shall within 30 days from the date of acquisition or any other officer authorised in this behalf, who shall thereupon proceed with and dispose of the claim.

(2) The creditor shall be paid out of the compensation money to the extent of the claim established under sub-section (1)

(3) Where there are more than one creditor, payment to them shall be made in the order of priority determined by such officer.

(4) Payment to the creditor may be made in one or more instalments but in no case shall the annual amount of compensation payable to an institution fall below 60 per cent of the annuity determined by such officer after deduction of arrears of revenue, if any, under Section 12.

(5) In case of any dispute as to the person or who are entitled to be paid out of the compensation money under the preceding sub-sections, the amount shall be kept in deposit in Government Treasury, and the dispute shall be referred to the Civil Court of competent jurisdiction, and the amount shall then be paid in terms of the final decisions of the Court.
